

Hi

I read article in the newspaper that you are urging all the companies to stop issuing paper bills.

It is good initiative and as per article you will be saving 80 lacs trees.

But don't you think to power on mobiles and computers requires electricity which in turned leads to generation of power sourced from coal which is most pollutant.

Can you please provide expert comments on this.

Sent from my Windows 10 device